Dove Hill
Native Plants

The Okanagan Nation Alliance aims to reduce the density of exotic and invasive plants at Dove Hill and support the native species suited to its low-elevation dry brushland ecosystem.

Restoring native species habitat and reintroducing low-severity fires will improve fire resilience, benefiting the ecosystem and community.

SCAN HERE

skʷəlsiɬməlx Kinnikinnick
Arctostaphylos uva-ursi

stɣiʔ
Bluebunch Wheatgrass
Psueoroegneria spicata

ɬʷəcɬʷəcwixʷups
Yarrow
Achillea millefolium

qʷiqʷiqniɬmlx̌
Silky Lupine
Lupinus sericeus

qʷayqʷayqniɬməlx
Shrubby Penstemon
Penstemon fruticosus

wəx̌waxi̓ɬp
Mock Orange
Philadelphus lewisii

ɬʷəx̌ʷɬʷax̌ʷ
Desert Parsley
Lomatium triternatum

síyaʔ
Saskatoon Berry
Amelanchier alnifolia

Okanagan Nation Alliance

Project Funded By:
Columbia Basin trust

In Collaboration With:
FWCP Fish & Wildlife Compensation Program fwcp.ca
Central Kootenay Invasive Species Society CKISS
British Columbia — Supported by the Province of British Columbia
Castlegar Parks and Trails Society

For More Info, Contact:

Okanagan Nation Alliance Natural Resources ColumbiaNR@syilx.org or 250-707-0095
www.syilx.org